HBRRRC opened in 1988 as an all-female reentry center. The facility is in the Beacon Hill neighborhood outside of downtown Seattle. Its residential location sits along a main bus line and has access to many local businesses. HBRRRC offers a child visit day and overnight program for mothers and their children. The primary goal is to improve public safety by positively changing lives by supporting the reentry needs of incarcerated individuals transitioning into the community.

Residents who meet the screening criteria may be transferred to HBRRRC 12 months before their earliest release date. The facility is leased and operated by the Washington State Department of Corrections and provides 24/7 safety and security, food services, case management and maintenance.

Individuals with Disabilities: The Reentry Centers meet applicable American with Disabilities Act (ADA) standards and DOC policies regarding ADA. We will coordinate with the statewide ADA coordinator prior to the arrival of residents requiring ADA accommodations to ensure the facility has the necessary items. We will ensure the facility continues to meet the accommodated residents' needs during their incarceration.
