They sweat during the summer and freeze during the winter. The day room is the only neutral area. The guys understand that it's Prison but would like the temperature a bit more equally distributed. Why is there a 12am count? There is a 9pm count. At 12am, sleep is disrupted (lights are turned on) and it's been only 3 hours. Stafford dropped the 12am and 9pm and changed the count time to 10pm?	Melissa Andrewjeski, Assistant Secretary - Women's Prison Division  Jeff Perkins – Superintendent A  Vaaia Gaines – Superintendent B Madison Murphy Associate Turner CPM Moore Gaines will look into. After speaking with inmate banking, once the money order is received CRCC proceeds to process through the bank. The bank then has 24 hours to deposit. * Note, holidays may create delays. CUS Partida stated there have been no complaints regarding freezing nor sweating. They are given three blankets. They need to reach out to CUS or sergeant. Superintendent Gaines, counts are the same everywhere. This is per policy, will not change.
