SUBJECT: Update: Second round of Economic Impact Payments (EIPs)

On January 8, 2021, the following message was sent:

On December 29, 2020, the IRS began distributing the second round of EIPs to eligible individuals. Eligible individuals with a 2019 adjusted gross income (AGI) of $75,000.00 or less will receive $600.00. Couples filing jointly with an AGI of less than $150,000 will receive $1,200.00. In addition, couples with qualifying dependent children under 17 will receive $600.00 per child. The EIP will be reduced for those with a higher AGI.

You may be eligible to receive a full or partial EIP. Please review the included IRS guidance for more information. If the IRS makes additional information available, it will be shared as appropriate.

When received on behalf of an incarcerated individual held in full or partial confinement, the EIPs are subject to full deductions per Washington State Law.

Updated January 25, 2021:

When received on behalf of an incarcerated individual held in full or partial confinement, the EIPs are subject to Federal Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) debts. Washington State deductions will not be taken.
