THE DEPARTMENT RECOGNIZES THE RIGHT OF OFFENDERS TO BE FREE FROM SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

What is PREA?

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) is federal law that went into effect in September of 2003 and prohibits sexual misconduct in correctional settings such as prisons, jails, lock-ups, juvenile facilities and Immigration Services/ICE detention facilities. Sexual misconduct under this law includes:

- Offender-on-offender sexual assault and abuse
- Staff-on-offender sexual misconduct (sexual/inappropriate relationships with offenders)
- Offender-on-offender and staff-on-offender sexual harassment

The Department of Corrections (DOC) has zero tolerance for sexual misconduct of any kind and will impose discipline for such misconduct, up to and including dismissal for staff and serious infractions for offenders who victimize other offenders. Incidents of sexual misconduct will also be referred to law enforcement when applicable. DOC policies regarding sexual misconduct apply to all offenders, both incarcerated and on community supervision. They also apply to employees, contractors, and volunteers.

The DOC does not recognize consensual sexual contact between staff and offenders. Consensual, non-coerced sexual activity between offenders is prohibited by DOC rule but is not defined as a violation of PREA policies.

How would I know if my family member/ friend is being threatened/ victimized?

A victim may:

- Experience stomachaches and/or headaches
- Display anger or rage

- Express concern about their safety
- Seem unusually detached or withdrawn
- Have episodes of crying or shaking

What can I do to help?

There are many ways to help someone who has been a victim of sexual misconduct including:

- Don't be judgmental
- Listen; be supportive and patient
- Encourage them to report the abuse

Having a family member or friend who has been the victim of sexual misconduct can be very upsetting. For this reason, it is also important to take care of yourself.
