Rob Jackson recently distributed 450 facial coverings, he constantly reminds CUSs that facial coverings are available. Education at WSP has resumed with social distancing.

Food strike is over as of today. More people were eating in Victor/Williams than in Delta/Echo
WSP is committed to a positive change of ensuring food is kept in food warmers the right amount of time.

Is there a policy saying that items ordered from Union Supply fall under the curio order? The policy was in effect in 2011, one package per month is allowed either Union Supply or curio. Sgt. Roop is on a 2 week vacation. Family members expressed concern that nobody is responding to property related inquiries

Transfers continue once a week.

There was a discussion on EFV program expansion. Sgt. Beal mentioned that the laundry set has not yet been bought due to budget limitations. Anna requested Paige to highlight to HQs that IIBF account has available funds and should be able to fund this purchase to expand the program.
